Featuring a 5.5 kW heating capacity, this barbecue is equipped with a special 35x35 cm cooking plate. The plate is designed with multiple temperature zones; the center is optimized for high-heat active cooking, while the outer edges serve as convenient warming areas. Designed specifically for gardens and open balconies, the barbecue can be fueled by barkless wood logs or, alternatively, wood pellets. The entire unit is coated with high-temperature resistant, smokeless black German Senotherm paint for maximum durability and an aesthetic finish.
